IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT

1. In accordance with sections 327(a), 328(a), and 1107 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2014(a) and 2016 and Bankruptcy Local Rules 2014-1 and 2016-1, the Debtors are authorized to employ and retain Ryan, effective as of the Petition Date, in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Engagement Letter, attached as Exhibit A to the Application, and this Order.
2. Pursuant to section 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the terms of the Engagement Letter, including without limitation, the Fee Structure, are reasonable terms and conditions of employment and are approved in all respects, as modified by this Order.

3. Ryan shall not be required to file Monthly Statements or Interim Fee Applications; provided, however, Ryan shall file a Final Fee Application with this Court seeking approval of its fees and expenses upon completion of its Services pursuant to sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Bankruptcy Local Rules and applicable law; provided further that Ryan shall be compensated and reimbursed pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 328(a) and Ryan's fees and expenses shall not be evaluated under the standard set forth in Bankruptcy Code section 330 except as set forth in paragraphs 4 and 5 below. Ryan shall include in its Final Fee Application, among other things, a specific breakdown of compensation and fees sought in the categories described in the Engagement Letter, setting forth detail and information regarding the calculation of such fees and expenses.

4. Notwithstanding paragraph 3 of this Order and any provision to the contrary in the Application or the Engagement Letter, the U.S. Trustee and any creditor of the Debtors' estates shall have the right to object to Ryan's Final Fee Application based on the reasonableness standard provided in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code. This Order and the record relating to this Court's consideration of the Application shall not prejudice the rights of the U.S. Trustee or the rights of any creditor of the Debtors' estates to challenge the reasonableness of Ryan's fees under section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, nothing in this Order or the record relating to this Court's consideration of the Application shall constitute a finding of fact or conclusion of law binding on the U.S. Trustee or any creditor of the Debtors' estates with respect to the reasonableness of Ryan's fees.

5. Notwithstanding paragraph 3 of this Order and any provision to the contrary in the Application or the Engagement Letter, prior to payment of any invoices pursuant to this Order, Ryan shall provide to advisors to the Creditors' Committee, on a strictly confidential, professionals' eyes only basis, copies of such invoices, and if the Creditors' Committee objects, including based on the reasonableness standard provided in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, within fourteen (14) days of receiving such invoices, the Debtors shall not pay such invoices without further order of this Court or written consent of the Creditors' Committee, as applicable.

6. The relief granted herein shall be binding upon any chapter 11 trustee appointed in these chapter 11 cases, or upon any chapter 7 trustee appointed in the event of a subsequent conversion of these chapter 11 cases to cases under chapter 7.

7. Ryan shall use its reasonable best efforts to avoid duplication of services provided by any of the Debtors' other retained professionals in these chapter 11 cases.

8. To the extent the Debtors wish to expand the scope of Ryan's services beyond those services set forth in the Application, Engagement Letter or this Order, the Debtors shall be required to seek further approval from this Court. The Debtors shall file notice of any proposed additional services (the "Proposed Additional Services") and any underlying engagement agreement with the Court and serve such notice on the U.S. Trustee, any official committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases, and any party requesting notice under Bankruptcy Rule 2002. If no such party files an objection within ten days of the Debtors filing such notice, the Proposed Additional Services and any underlying engagement agreement may be approved by the Court by further order without further notice or hearing.

9. Ryan will review its files periodically during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases to ensure that no conflicts or other disqualifying circumstances exist or arise. If any new relevant facts or relationships are discovered or arise, Ryan will use reasonable efforts to identify such further developments and will promptly file a supplemental declaration, as required by Bankruptcy Rule 2014(a).

10. The indemnification provisions, if any, included in the Engagement Letter and its attachments are approved, subject to the following:

(a) As set forth in paragraph (c), Ryan shall not be entitled to indemnification, contribution or reimbursement pursuant to the Engagement Letter for services, unless such services and the indemnification, contribution or reimbursement therefore are approved by the Court;

(b) The Debtors shall have no obligation to indemnify Ryan, or provide contribution or reimbursement to Ryan, for any claim or expense that is either: (i) judicially determined (the determination having become final) to have arisen from Ryan's gross negligence, willful misconduct, fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, if any, bad faith or self-dealing, or (ii) settled prior to a judicial determination as to Ryan's gross negligence, willful misconduct, breach of fiduciary duty, or bad faith or self-dealing but determined by this Court, after notice and a hearing, to be a claim or expense for which Ryan should not receive indemnity, contribution or reimbursement under the terms of the Engagement Letter as modified by this Order; and

(c) If, before the earlier of (i) the entry of an order confirming a chapter 11 plan in these cases (that order having become a final order no longer subject to appeal), and (ii) the entry of an order closing these chapter 11 cases, Ryan believes that it is entitled to the payment of any amounts by the Debtors on account of the Debtors' indemnification, contribution and/or reimbursement obligations under the Engagement Letter (as modified by this Application), including without limitation the advancement of defense costs, Ryan must file an application therefore in this Court, and the Debtors may not pay any such amounts to Ryan before the entry of an order by this Court approving the payment. This subparagraph (c) is intended only to specify the period of time under which the Court shall have jurisdiction over any request for fees and expenses by Ryan for indemnification, contribution or reimbursement, and not a provision limiting the duration of the Debtors' obligation to indemnify Ryan. All parties in interest shall retain the right to object to any demand by Ryan for indemnification, contribution or reimbursement.

11. Omitted.

12. In the event that, during the pendency of these cases, Ryan seeks reimbursement for any attorneys' fees and/or expenses, the invoices and supporting time records from such attorneys shall be included in a fee application and such invoices and time records shall be in compliance with the Bankruptcy Local Rules, and shall be subject to the U.S. Trustee Guidelines and approval of the Court under the standards of Bankruptcy Code sections 330 and 331, without regard to whether such attorney has been retained under Bankruptcy Code section 327; provided, however, that Ryan shall not seek reimbursement from the Debtors' estates for any fees incurred in defending any of Ryan's fees in these chapter 11 cases.

13. Notice of this Application as provided therein constitutes good and sufficient notice of the Application.

14. To the extent the Application, Travis Declaration or Engagement Letter is inconsistent with this Order, the terms of this Order shall govern.

15. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary or appropriate to carry out the relief granted in this Order.

16. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, or enforcement of this Order.
